Columbia, May 12.—The State Company of Columbia today fited suit for dumages in the pum of $50,00 against the Record Publishing Co., of Columbia. The plaintiff alleges that the defendant published a statement casting aspersions on its circulation claims and thereby injured it with its advertisers and subscripers. The company of the contraction of the contracti claims and thereby injured it with its advertisers and subscribers. The complaint was served today on the Record Publishing Company.

It uppears that on the 8th, of last October the Evening Record displayed prominently an advertisement claiming "The Record Guarantees Advertisers 75 per cent, more local paid circulation than is given by any other newspaper." The Fecord offered to give $1,000 to any chartty to be named by the mayor of the city if this statement was not correct. The State recently published some circulation figures which The Record vigorously assailed, and on its front page printed a statement charging misrepresentation on the part of The State. Out of this grew the libel suit.
